M. E. Church Notes.

There was a large and brilliant gathering of Methodism at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Tochterman on Tuesday evening last. The occasion was a reception to Rev. L. C. Powell and wife. Mr. Powell is the recently appointed pastor of the First M. E. church, of this city.

One hundred and fifty-one guests responded to the toast, "Shall We Rally Around the Cross?" A variety of instrumental solos and duets, and choruses of the good, old songs of Zion, a social hour, and a discussion of plans for making the church most effective in the community the coming year made a pleasurable and profitable evening. At 10 o'clock the Ladies' Aid Society served a buffet luncheon.

Mr. Powell, by his genial manner and ready wit, made friends of all present. Mr. Tochterman's home is admirably adapted to such occasions and every detail of the reception was complete and happily carried out. Among the guests were Mrs. F. M. Spragg, of Ridgeway, Mo. She is a member of the church there and a close friend of Brother Powell during his six years as pastor there. She is visiting at the home of Professor Brooks.

No Train Service.

Coming had no train service from the south from Saturday evening, September 30, to Tuesday, October 3. Sunday morning several washouts near Forest City and the temporary bridge over the new cut bridge, two miles southeast of Corning knocked out all service. About six thousand to eight thousand acres of bottom land were under water. It was a sight to stand on the levee southeast of town and look at the broad expanse of water, resembling much one of the great lakes. There was water on some land which the great flood of '81 failed to touch. This superabundance of water this time was due to the unfinished condition of the new ditch.

No. 20, the noon passenger, got here about two hours late, Sunday, October 1, and Monday turned around and went back as No. 21. A number of passengers for Craig got off here and took livery teams through mud for that town. The hobtail from Clarinda got here about noon Tuesday, October 3 coming through much water.

Wouldn't a pair of our soft, heavy Blankets feel good these nights? KREEK & HANNESS.

Tom Curry, the junior member of the firm, has been confined to his home the past week on account of a severe attack of neuritis. He hopes to be able to be out in a few days.

Mrs. Nicholas Stock has been confined to her home the past few days on account of a very painful foot, caused by an ingrown nail. Her many friends hope to see her out again soon.

Saturday Special

15 lbs. Sugar... $1.00

to all customers buying at least $1.00 worth in other departments; flour excepted. KREEK & HANNESS.

Mrs. Dr. Bever, of Amazonia, is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Hostetter, and her sister, Mrs. Sam Schulte. Her sister, Mary, came home with her after a visit of several weeks.

Fred Kurtz brought to this office two sweet potatoes, which weighed 61 pounds each. He says he raised 21 bushels of sweet potatoes off of one row, the row being not quite 100 yards long.

Mrs. Elizabeth Carroll, who has been making her home at Hamburg, Ia., will return and occupy her property here. Her daughter, Mrs. Hamberger, of Oklahoma, will come and make her home with her mother. Charley King, who has been occupying the property, removes to the Charley Ruley place, and Mr. Ruley goes to his son's farm just east of town.

WE deal in A. B. Kirschbaum & Co. Clothes for these reasons:

Because Kirschbaum Clothes are the clothes sold by progressive merchants everywhere. And, more particularly, because the Kirschbaum standard of quality, tailoring, finish and style squares with our ideas of what we want to offer our most particular customers.

There is never any question about the fabric. A suit or an overcoat with the Kirschbaum Cherry Tree Brand label is as surely "All-Wool" as the coat on a sheep's back.

Kirschbaum tailoring is hand tailoring--shape and style are needle molded into the cloth by hand and will stay, insuring permanent good looks.

Prices, $15, $16, $20, $22, $25. The Kirschbaum Special $18 "True Blue," Heavy Weight Serge Suits are hand-tailored, fast-color, "top-style" clothes--a new suit for any that fades.

KOOCK, AT OREGON.

Plant a Good Orchard

of Choice Home Grown Trees--Jonathans, York Imperials, Gano, Grimes Golden, Black Twig, Wealthy, Duchess, Maiden's Blush. . . .

Don't neglect your alfalfa, good seed corn, hogs, or dairy products--these are all money makers, but put a little time and money into a nice orchard (just what you can handle well), and you will find it one of the safest and most profitable investments you ever made.

"Special" varieties such as: Delicious Winter Banana, Senator, Apple of Commerce, Champion, Black Ben Davis, etc., may be alright for the family orchard, (and we have them in stock), but don't take chances on a doubtful proposition by planting them extensively until they have been fully tried out in this section.

The best in all kinds of Trees, Plants, Vines and ornamental stock.

Send for Price List. We guarantee satisfaction. We are book-ling orders now for Spring delivery.

A $50 Joke.

A fine of $50 was imposed on Frank Riley, a 17-year-old youth of St. Joseph, one day last week, for applying a lighted candle to the clothing of Charley Narans, a street-car conductor. Mr. Narans formerly resided in Oregon, and was one of the rural mail carriers here. Charley said:

"We were going south on Sixth street when the motorman saw a lighted candle in the center of the track between Walnut and Hickory streets and stopped the car. I ran ahead and kicked the candle off the track. Riley ran out from the sidewalk and picked up the burning candle and when I started to board the car he came up behind and placed the flame under my coat. A hole was burned in my coat, trousers and underclothing. I called Patrolman Hill and he arrested Riley."

See the new Coats at Kreek & Hanness.

Frank Morgan, we are told, has purchased the I. E. Gilbert residence in this city.
